SHORT BIO

Ukrainian-born Kostia Lucky is redefining the violin for the 21st century. With degrees from Eastman School of Music and the University of Miami's Frost School of Music, he has toured the globe and headlined sold-out shows such as Revolution and the Lucky Brothers Dueling Violins Show. Collaborating with elite agencies including Don Casino, Black Box Booking, Legacy Entertainment, and NuArt, and others, Kostia leaves audiences amazed — "I've never heard the violin sound like this before."

EXTENDED BIO

Kostia Lucky (Lukyniuk) is one of the world's most innovative violinists, a boundary-breaker who transforms the instrument into a voice of modern culture. After his early debut at age nine with the Chernivtsi Philharmonic, he went on to train under Oleh Krysa at Eastman and graduate with his Master's from the Frost School of Music.

Today, he commands stages across the U.S. and internationally, performing solo theater shows and festival appearances that electrify audiences. His collaborations with industry titans such as Don Casino, Black Box Booking, Legacy Entertainment, and NuArt have brought to life productions like Revolution and the Lucky Brothers Dueling Violins Show, both acclaimed for merging tradition and innovation.

Kostia's performances span luxury galas, international festivals, corporate showcases, and cultural premieres — from Art Basel Miami, PBS, and the Miami Symphony Orchestra to collaborations with global stars like Okean Elzy and Arturo Sandoval. Everywhere he plays, his artistry is described as immersive, energetic, and unforgettable.

WHY KOSTIA LUCKY?

Revolutionary Voice on the Violin — Kostia redefines the instrument for the modern stage, blending classical virtuosity with jazz, funk, rock, and electronic energy. His sound is instantly recognizable, genre-defying, and captivating for diverse audiences.

Tailored Exclusivity — Every Kostia Lucky performance is a one-of-a-kind artistic statement, carefully designed in collaboration with presenters to reflect the vision of their theater, festival, or showcase. From curating repertoire that bridges classical masterpieces with contemporary innovation, to shaping pacing, visuals, and storytelling, Kostia ensures that no two concerts are ever alike. This approach allows venues to offer their audiences an experience that feels exclusive to their stage — elevating programming value, deepening audience engagement, and positioning each event as a highlight of the season.

Festival-Ready Programming — A natural fit for multi-genre festivals and showcases, Kostia creates immersive sets that resonate equally with classical listeners and contemporary crowds, offering presenters maximum flexibility in programming.

High-Profile Collaborations — Trusted by industry leaders such as Don Casino, Black Box Booking, Legacy Entertainment, and NuArt, and having shared the stage with stars like Arturo Sandoval and Okean Elzy, Kostia brings instant credibility to every lineup.

Transformative Audience Experience — More than a concert, Kostia's shows are journeys that leave audiences inspired, uplifted, and talking long after the final note — an impact that builds loyalty for venues and festivals alike.
